Latest from La Piata.

One of the owners of the Red Jacket mine at La Piata was in the city yesterday and informed a HERALD representative that another rich strike had been made in the mine in which he is interested. A four foot vein of crystalized carbonate has been unearthed, which assays 70 per cent, lead and 15½ ounces silver. One shift filled eighty-two sucks of the ore a few days ago. He stated that they had about two hundred tons of ore on the dump ready for shipmont. The depth of the snow at La Plata about three feet.

General Gleanings Merry Christmas!

THE CHRISTMAS HERALDS Brrived in Ogden yesterday morning and they were appreciated by all.

A little six year old boy of Mr. Charles Romey, living on upper Teenty-fifth street, strayed away from home yesterday afternoon, and up to late least evening the police were unable to find him.

There are undelivered messages at the Western Union Telegraph office for the following parties: J. Ropel and Oscar S. Strauss "Little Lord Fauntleroy" will be the attraction at the Grand opera house this af-ternoon and evening. The advance sale of seats is immense. The merchants were kept busy yesterday distributing Santa Claus' goods.

The sleighing continues to be good and the sleigh bells are numerous.

The firemen's second annual ball was largely attended last evening in the city ball.

The shelves of the business houses were in a state of chaos last night after the Christmas trade had closed, which was all that merchants could reasonably ask. The Silver band was out in new uni-forms and made a circuit of the town, playing some stirring music. The city was well filled with people from all around the suburbs and from adjoining settlements, who contributed considerable to the good business done. Christmas trees were to be seen in all the ward meeting houses, and were richly house, with present and were richly bung with presents. Scores of turkeys and chickens were served and a rich supply of viands made served and a rich supply of viands made away with.

The firemen gave a pleasant ball at their hall, which was patre ized by a popular class of dancers. Many of the boys were decked in their regulation apparel. Supper was provided at the different eating houses, and the company used its own option in the place of taking refreshments.

Professor Tappan also gave a ball at the

Is it your fault or the boy's that Young Hopeful doesn't anderstand the meaning of the word he has encountered, or knows nothing about the man of whose actions he has been reading? The boy comes to you while you are deep in the real estate reports, and you are annoyed at the interruption. Does not part of your annoyance arise from the fact that you don't know yourself?

The whole trouble, both for the boy and yourself, would be avoided if you had an Encyclopedia in the house - a good, one that is. Like many other people, you have not such a work, and you say, with considerable justice, that you have been unable to afford the purchase of one. That was true in the past but is no longer the case.
